POLICY PROMOTION

This Policy will be made available to all members via the Club's website Policies and Procedures tab.

This policy will also be communicated to all members. This includes, but is not limited to, coaching staff, committee members, administration staff, volunteers and judges.

BREACHES OF THIS POLICY

Any member who is found to be in breach of this policy may:

Staff Member/Volunteer/Committee Member:

1. Be spoken to by a Manager, an authorised Administrative Representative, a Committee Member or the Club's Operations Manager and be asked to refrain from wearing the incorrect attire in the future; or
2. Be asked to leave the club and go get changed; or
3. Be provided with a temporary shirt (or clothing attire) if available.
4. Should a second instance occur that a staff member is in breach of this policy, then that staff member may face disciplinary action and be placed on a Performance Management Plan.
5. Continual breaches of this policy may eventually result in termination of the staff member's employment in accordance with the club's Disciplinary Action Plan.

Athlete/Participant:

1. Be spoken to by a Manager, an Authorised Administrative Representative, a Committee Member or the Club's Operations Manager and be asked to refrain from wearing the incorrect attire in the future; or
2. Be asked to leave the club and go get changed; or
3. Be provided with a temporary shirt (or clothing attire) if available.
4. Should a second instance occur that a member is in breach of this policy, then that athlete may be denied access to the club's facility and training until such time that they are wearing appropriate attire.
5. Should continual breaches of this policy be evident, the matter will be referred to the club's Management Committee for their action.

Any breaches of this policy may also be subject to review by the club's Management Committee and actioned in accordance with relevant Disciplinary Processes.
